- (3) If there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for the Branch General Meeting called on the request of the BMC of the Branch, the meeting lapses.
- (4) If there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for the Branch General Meeting called other than on the request of the BMC of the Branch—
 - (a) the Branch General Meeting is to be adjourned for at least 30 days; and
 - (b) the BMC(E) is to decide the day, time and place of the adjourned meeting.
- (5) The Branch chairperson may, with the consent of any Branch meeting at which there is a quorum, must if directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.
- (6) If a Branch meeting is adjourned under subrule (5), only the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place may be conducted at the adjourned meeting.
- (7) The Branch Secretary is required to give the Branch members notice of an adjournment and of the business to be conducted at an adjourned meeting.

89. Procedure at Branch General Meetings

- (1) A Branch member may take part and vote at a Branch General Meeting in person, by proxy, or by using any technology that reasonably allows the member to hear and take part in discussions as they happen.
- (2) A Branch member who participates in a Branch General Meeting as mentioned in subrule (1) is taken to be present at the meeting.
- (3) At each Branch General Meeting—
 - (a) the Branch President, or with the leave of the meeting the Branch President's nominee, is to preside as chairperson; or
 - (b) if there is no Branch President or if the Branch President is not present within 15 minutes after the time fixed for the Branch meeting, or is unwilling to act, the members present may elect a chairperson for the purposes of that particular Branch General Meeting only; and
 - (c) the Branch chairperson must conduct the meeting in a proper and orderly way.

90. Voting at Branch General Meeting

- (1) At the Branch General Meeting, each question, matter or resolution, other than a Pledge Resolution, must be decided by a majority of votes of the Branch members present.
- (2) Each Branch member present and eligible to vote is entitled to one vote only, unless they hold a registered proxy.
- (3) A resolution arising at a Branch General Meeting is to be decided by a majority vote of Branch members present at the meeting, including registered proxies and if the votes are equal, the resolution is decided in the negative.
- (4) The method of voting is to be decided by the Branch meeting.
- (5) If at least 25% of the Branch members present demand a secret ballot, voting must be by secret ballot.
- (6) If a secret ballot is held, with the leave of the meeting the Branch chairperson must appoint two people to conduct the secret ballot in the way the meeting decides.
- (7) The result of a secret ballot as declared by the Branch chairperson is taken to be a resolution of the Branch meeting at which the ballot was held.

91. Minutes of Branch General Meetings

- (1) The Branch Secretary must ensure full and accurate minutes of all questions, matters, resolutions, proxy registrations and other proceedings of each Branch General Meeting are documented.
- (2) To ensure the accuracy of minutes—
 - (a) the minutes of each Branch General Meeting must be signed by the chairperson of the meeting or the chairperson of the next Branch General Meeting, verifying their accuracy;
 - (b) If the meeting is a Branch AGM or EGM then the minutes must be signed by the chairperson of that meeting or the chairperson of the next meeting of the Branch whether it is a General Meeting, EGM or AGM, verifying their accuracy.
- (3) If asked by a member of the Branch, the Branch Secretary must, within 28 days after the request is made—
 - (a) make the minute documentation for a particular Branch General Meeting available for inspection by the member at a mutually agreed time and place; and
 - (b) give the Branch member a copy of the minutes of the meeting.
 - (c) The Branch may require the member to pay the reasonable costs of providing copies of the minutes.

92. Branch Proxies

- (1) An instrument appointing a Branch proxy must be in writing and be in the following or similar form—

[Name of Branch]

I, being a member of the above Branch, appoint
..... also of the above Branch, as my proxy to vote for me on my behalf at the (Annual / Extraordinary / General) meeting of the Branch, to be held on the .....day of 20..... and at any adjournment of the meeting.

Signed by thisday of 20.....

- (2) The instrument appointing a Branch proxy must be signed by the appointor or the appointor's attorney properly authorised in writing.
- (3) A Branch member's proxy must be held by a member of the same Branch.
- (4) The instrument appointing a Branch proxy is taken to confer authority to demand or join in a demand for a secret ballot.
- (5) Each instrument appointing a Branch proxy must be given to the Branch Secretary and be registered and recorded by the Branch Secretary before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote.
- (6) The Branch proxy may vote as the proxy considers appropriate.
- (7) A written Branch proxy may only be accepted at the meeting for which it is proposed.

93. Branch Annual General Meeting (Branch AGM)

- (1) At least 12 months after the branch is formed the first Branch AGM must be held within six months after the end date of the Society's next reportable financial year.
- (2) Each subsequent Branch AGM must be held —
 - (a) at least once each year; and
 - (b) within six months after the end date of the Society's reportable financial year.
- (3) The following business must be conducted at each Branch AGM—
 - (a) receiving the Branch financial statement, and audit report, for the last reportable financial year;

- (b) presenting the Branch financial statement and audit report to the meeting for adoption;
- (c) electing members of the BMC in accordance with this Constitution; and
- (d) electing Delegates for the AGM and National Convention.

94. Branch Extraordinary General Meeting (Branch EGM)

- (1) Except as stated under the Branch Inaugural Rules, the Branch Secretary must call the Branch EGM by giving each member of the Branch notice of the meeting within 14 days after—
 - (a) being directed to call a meeting by the BMC; or
 - (b) being given a written request signed by—
 - (i) at least 33% of the number of members of the BMC when the request is signed;
 - (ii) at least the number of ordinary members of the Branch equal to double the number of members of the Branch on the BMC when the request is signed; or
 - (iii) the Secretary of the Society on behalf of the NMC(E).
- (2) A Branch EGM must be held within three months after the Branch Secretary—
 - (a) is directed to call the meeting by the BMC(E); or
 - (b) is given the written request mentioned in subrule (1)(b).
- (3) If the Branch Secretary is unable or unwilling to call the Branch EGM, the Branch President may call the meeting. If neither are unable or unwilling then the Secretary of the Society must call the meeting.

95. Branch AGM and Branch EGM Procedure

The notices for a Branch AGM or a Branch EGM, the quorum provisions, the procedures of, the voting, the minutes and proxy provisions shall be the same as for a Branch General Meeting.

96. Branch By-laws

- (1) The BMC may make, amend or repeal by-laws, not inconsistent with this Constitution, for the internal management of the Branch.
- (2) A Branch by-law may be set aside by a majority vote of Branch members at the Branch General Meeting of the Society.

97. Size of Branch

- (1) A Branch must consist of at least enough members to equal Branch Delegate entitlement as set out in the Schedule. The exceptions are—
 - (a) The NMC(E) may in its absolute discretion allow a Branch to form with fewer members.

- (b) The NMC may in its absolute discretion allow an existing Branch to continue with less than the minimum number.
 - (c) A Branch with less than minimum Delegate entitlement will still be allowed one Delegate to attend Society General Meetings and the National Convention.
 - (d) As set out in the inaugural rules for the inaugural period.
- (2) There is no upper limit to the number of members in a Branch.

98. Closure of Branch

- (1) If the NMC(E) determines in their absolute discretion that a Branch is not operating to this Constitution, then it may close the Branch and allocate the members to other nearby Branches.
- (2) Any funds in the Branch Subaccount will be allocated pro rata to the nearby Branch or Branches in accordance to where the members are reallocated.

99. Branch Inactive

If a Branch has become inactive and may be revived at a later date, the NMC(E) in its discretion may declare the Branch inactive and not reallocate members and Branch funds but instead maintain the status quo until a Branch is reformed or reallocated. The necessary Branch financials will continue to be prepared by the NMC(E) but the Branch may not conduct any financial transactions nor send any Delegates to Society General Meetings during this period.

100. NMC(E) to Intervene in Branch

- (1) If a BMC in the opinion of the NMC(E)—
 - (a) is acting in breach of this Constitution;
 - (b) has received indication from the Auditor that the Branch actions may cause the Society audit to be qualified;
 - (c) is acting or threatening to act in significant breach of Society Policy such that the reputation of the Society is likely to be damaged; or
 - (d) is acting or threatening to act in such a way as to restrict, curtail or interrupt the contractual provision of services by the Society to the members.

then the NMC(E) under the provisions of clause (95) may call for a Branch EGM.

- (2) Furthermore the NMC(E) may call for a complete spill of all BMC positions at the Branch and call nominations for all BMC positions to be elected at the Branch EGM.
- (3) The President or his or her nominee from NMC(E) may at their absolute discretion decide to chair this Branch EGM to conduct the elections.

101. Working with other Branches

- (1) Nearby Branches may elect to hold regional meeting or forums—
 - (a) to discuss issues of importance; and
 - (b) these meetings or forums may be convened in any form that the members in attendance may agree upon from time to time.
- (2) Any matters of Policy democratically determined at such meetings may be submitted to the National Convention via a nominated Branch participating in the meeting or forum as being from the regional meeting or forum; and
- (3) Regional Branches may establish regional standing committees to further Policy strategic and technical development, in areas of member interest or concern.

102. Branches to Accept Appointments

- (1) Consistent with the Branch Objects as set out in the Constitution, with the approval of the NMC(E) and in conjunction with the Service Provider the BMC(E) may accept appointments in any negotiations—
 - (a) To act on behalf of Branch members; or
 - (b) To act on behalf of certain non members.
- (2) Where it is a provision of relevant Statute that a person may appoint a bargaining agent to represent them in their negotiations with their employer, the Membership of this Society, specifically appoints the Society as the bargaining agent for the member.
 - (a) Such appointment is authorisation from the member that all such notices to the member with respect to any such negotiations are to be sent to or copied to the Society.
